DEFEND THE ATLANTA FOREST

The Atlanta Police Foundation and Blackhall are destroying Atlanta’s canopy amid climate crisis & public dissent.

@DefendAtlantaForest
@defendtheatlantaforest
defendtheatlantaforest@protonmail.com

DEFEND THE ATLANTA FOREST

The Atlanta Police Foundation and Blackhall Studios are destroying Atlanta’s canopy amid climate crisis and public dissent.
What is Defend the Forest?

Defend the Forest aims to stop the forest from being bulldozed by police and sold to Hollywood.

How can I visit?

Defend the Forest aims to stop the forest from being bulldozed by police and sold to Hollywood.

How can I visit?

The forest is partly in Intrenchment Creek Park, a public park in southeast Atlanta. The trailhead address is West Side Pl., Atlanta, GA 30316.

What can I do?

The movement is as strong as our differences. We encourage diverse participation and creative innovation!

• Come visit, come stay awhile!
• Contribute to supply drives any Saturday, 2-6PM @ Intrenchment Creek Trailhead
• Encourage contractors to drop the project by calling Brasfield & Gorrie @ 678.581.6400, the Atlanta Police Foundation @ 770.354.3392, and the City of Atlanta 404.330.6100 or sending letters/emails of concern
• Help with direct actions
• Donate
• Make forest themed graphics
• Organize an infonight
• Organize and/or attend an event during the next week of action.